YOUR NATIONAL GUARD OFFERS YOU 3 PLANS

If you are 17 to 18½ years old, you may be eligible for the 3 following plans. Under any one of them, you would receive pay and allowances of your grade and build up retirement pension benefits. What's more, Guard duty usually consists of just 48 2-hour sessions a year plus 2 weeks of field training. But more important, you will be serving your country in a real man's outfit, America's oldest military organization.

PLAN 1. You may enlist in your local National Guard unit and train right here in Lexington among your friends and neighbors. All the time you're serving satisfactorily, you will be deferred from induction into the active services.

PLAN 2. You may enlist in any Lexington Guard unit and volunteer for only 6 months of active duty training with the Army. If you're in high school and doing well, this duty may be deferred until after graduation (but not after you reach 20). When you've completed this 6 month course, you return home to your own Lexington Guard unit to complete a total of 8 years in the Guard as a citizen soldier.

PLAN 3. You may enlist in any Lexington Guard unit, then at a later date of your own choosing, volunteer to attend an Army service school. If you attend such a school, you will acquire valuable technical skills useful in civilian life—and you will improve your chances for promotion in the National Guard.
