COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER

FRANKFORT

LAWRENCE W. WETHERBY
GOVERNOR

January 23, 1951

GREETINGS:

It is a privilege and a pleasure to pay tribute to the membership of the Kentucky National Guard, the great military organization maintained in our Commonwealth for the alleviation of human suffering during times of distress and need.

The Guard has shown its invaluable worth on home soil on numerous occasions, meriting the deep gratitude and full appreciation accorded it by our citizenry. In World War II, as in the current crisis, the Kentucky National Guard was one of the first organizations to be alerted into federal mobilization. Its high standards and proven aptitude in any emergency facilitated the prompt and full utilization of those units called to arms.

Down through the ages since the State Militia was first organized, the strength, valor, and heroism of our Kentucky soldiers have been perpetuated.

In the present federal emergency and at any future time this organization is called upon for aid, the Kentucky National Guard will carry on in the fine traditional spirit which inspired its predecessors to lend their service in preserving law and order in the greatest country in the world.

Sincerely yours,

Lawrence W. Wetherby
Lawrence W. Wetherby
Governor

LAWRENCE W. WETHERBY
GOVERNOR

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
OFFICE OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL
FRANKFORT

GREETINGS:

The National Guard of Kentucky and its pioneer predecessor, the "Militia", have a lineage dating back to the Colonial period. The fire of patriotism has ever burned brightly in the heart of every Kentuckian and at all times has manifested itself whenever a National crisis has arisen.

In peace, as in war, the sons of the Commonwealth have always felt a pride in wearing the uniform. Some of the Nation's most able contributors to the sciences and professions were Kentuckians who served in the military service, and to read the heroic deeds of Kentucky soldiers in all wars is to study the progress of a nation beset with conflict.

The strength of the Kentucky National Guard is the greatest in its history; the efficiency of the units composing the Guard has been favorably mentioned in official reports on many occasions from higher headquarters; national recognition in the form of the Eisenhower Trophy and the Spatz Trophy won by Kentucky units verify these appraisals.

The accomplishments of the Guard reflect the high caliber of officers and enlisted men composing it. The job of building and maintaining an efficient National Guard is the task of every guardsman. No special commendation is due any particular officer or man, but to each of you, I say - thanks - for a job well done.

In the days that lie ahead, my only request is that you remember the heritage that is ours and acquit yourselves like men and true Kentuckians.

A Salute..... to The Citizen Soldier

Many members of the National Guard today are veterans of World War II. Others are young men making their start in life, and seeking to establish themselves in their professions. But, even while pursuing civilian activities, they spend at least one night a week at their armories and two weeks a year in Summer Training. This spirit of voluntary service and the desire to remain ready to defend His country, indeed reflects great admiration upon THE CITIZEN SOLDIER.
